Worksheet 12:
Recording, reporting and practice that supports a person who is behaving in a manner viewed as challenging

What is your organisation's procedure for reporting and recording 'challenging behaviour'?

What systems do you have which really help you as a person and/or team to report and record 'challenging behaviour'?

What systems do you have which really DO NOT help you as a person and/or team to report and record 'challenging behaviour'?

How do you involve relatives and friends of people with dementia to help you understand why the person may be behaving in a 'challenging' way?

How do you involve other professionals in understanding why the person with dementia may be behaving in a 'challenging' way?